THEY WERE CONVERT- ED to the birth control belief by Margaret Sanger, who visited Japan. Mr.
Takigawa is a prominent Tokyo business man and his wife is leader in feminine political circles.

HE IS BOOSTING Henry Ford as a candidate for President of the United States. The Ford-for-President organization has been formed and R. R. Pointer is chairman and campaign manager.

IMPRISONED FOR THIRTY-TWO HOURS by a cave-in in a mine at Oatman, Ariz. Miss Marie Blackwood and her father were rescued by her fiancé, a world-war veteran, after a hard, desperate struggle.

PRINCESS MARIE, of Rumania, one of Europe's most beautiful women, will wed young King Alexander, of Serbia early this month.
She is twenty-three and a great favorite in royal circles.

HUGH DUFFY, manager of the Boston Red Sox, has rounded out thirty-five years' service in the baseball world.
He played his first game with the Salem (Mass.) nine on Decoration Day, 1887.

SURVIVORS OF THE S.
S. Egypt — Mrs. Warner, Miss Eddenden and Miss Emmett, who have just landed at Brest, France, say members of the crew fought for lifeboats and passengers were abandoned.

HIS GRACE, the Duke of Leeds, arrived in New York on the S. S. Olympic a day or two ago and is coming to Washington to visit the British Ambassador.

A HEN WITH A WOODEN LEG is owned by Dr. M. H. Ross, of Los Angeles.
Despite the amputation of her leg, due to an infection, she continues to lay eggs, scratch for a living and can put up a good fight in the barnyard.

A LUMINOUS GOWN, fashioned of lace, ribbon, and pearls, made by students in the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts. Miss Leichter, who helped make it, is shown wearing it.

HAVE THESE MEN PERISHED? That is the question asked by members of the National Geographic Society in Washington who have been following the progress of General Bruce's expedition which set out to scale Mt. Everest, but from which no word has been received for two months. These bold and intrepid men, who undertook one of the most daring feats of exploration ever attempted, may have met death at the hands of their rebellious guides.

COWSHOES ARE STYLISH among Virginia moonshiners, according to Washington Internal Revenue officers. The makers of "white lightning" strap these shoes on their feet so as to avoid making human footprints by which they might be traced. Revenue officers call this "the cleverest stunt yet pulled by moonshiners in the South."

"THE FASTEST HUMAN"
is the title conferred on Alfred Coney, Lafayette College sprinter, who negotiated 100 yards in 9.7-10 seconds, thereby establishing a new intercollegiate record.

CHAMPION FEMALE
BONE-CRUSHER of America, Miss Laura Bennett says she is in tip-top shape to meet Miss Le Mar, the French champion, in Cleveland next week. She looks to be in good form.

ON THE ROCKS at Lizard Old Head, the British steamer St. Patrice is held a captive of the sea and all efforts to rescue the vessel have failed. The captain of the ship lost his bearings during a heavy fog. The St. Patrice, loaded with oil, was bound from Swansea to the Tyne.

HITTING ON ALL TEN, this limousine de luxe of the vintage of 1849, created a sensation in the Sacramento Forty-Niners' Parade, when drawn through the streets by half a score of oxen.

A COY INDIAN MAID, Miss Eliza Dana, the prettiest member of the Passamaquoddy Tribe in Maine, is going out West with the chiefs and squaws to visit the Redskins beyond the Rockies.

PRESIDENT EBERT, of Germany, accompanied by the minister of defense and the chief of the admiralty, have just completed a tour of inspection of the new German navy at Wilhelmshaven.

WASHINGTON AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS! The Times is desirous of publishing some of your pictures on this page. Send in news or action shots and you will be paid for them, if used. For each photograph used The Times will pay $3. For each photograph retained for future use $2 will be paid. The photographs must be exclusive to The Times. They must be clear prints and illustrate a news happening or recent event in the National Capital. A Scotchman's picture is not news, but if he throws away money—that's different. When you send in pictures be sure to write your name and address, as well as a description of the news event, on the back of it, and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope if you want the pictures returned to you.
